

First We Eat

10 May 2017

Press Release – for immediate release

Local Company selected for Sulgrave Manor Tea Room

Local food and catering business, First We Eat, has announced its appointment to manage the Courtyard Tea Room at Sulgrave Manor, the ancestral home of George Washington.

Having opened for the 2017 season on Easter weekend, First We Eat will be providing home cooked light refreshments, lunches and cakes together with quality coffee and a selection of teas.

Diane Kenny, owner of First We Eat, commented: “I am delighted and very excited to be working with the team at Sulgrave Manor. I look forward to being able to offer exceptional food for our visitors – all of which I prepare and cook myself. I hope that visitors will join us to sample the friendly atmosphere and tasty food!”

Full details on opening times can be found on the Sulgrave Manor website:

<http://www.sulgravemanor.org.uk/>

ENDS

First We Eat – www.firstweeatuk.co.uk

Facebook - <https://www.facebook.com/firstweeatuk/>

Sulgrave Manor is a Tudor and Georgian house built by direct ancestors of George Washington, the first President of the United States. Discover how Civil War, financial ruin, and a shipwreck led to Washington's great-grandfather seeking a fresh start in the New World.