ngs gardens open for charity

Sulgrave gardens open day. 19th June 2011. 2-6pm

Combined entrance £4. All children free

8 gardens will be opening this year.

Mill Hollow Barn (Judith and David Thompson), The Watermill (Jacqueline and Anthony Todd), Rectory Farm (Joanna and Charles Smyth-Osbourne), Sunnymead (Jean and Bob Bates), Threeways (Alison and Digby Lewis), Church Cottage (Ingram and Hywel Lloyd), The Herb garden at the Manor (Herb Society) and Sulgrave Allotments

Teas will be at Asby House (Joan and Terry Taylor)

Plant stall (location still to be decided)

So much has bloomed early this year we hope that there will be plenty to see in June. Do come and share the afternoon with us.

If any one feels keen to help with teas, park cars or generally help please contact me. We always need extra hands and can find large and small jobs very easily to suit peoples other commitments and inclinations!

In 2009 Sulgrave raised £2488.70 for the NGS charities

John "The Post" Down

We have received a message from John's wife Pat thanking everyone in the village for their support and kind wishes. Her words speak clearly so more words here are not required.....

Dear Residents of Sulgrave

This is a short letter thanking you all for the love, care and kindness you all showed to John before and during his illness. Somedays I know John dragged himself to work because people like you helped him to keep going, and for this I thank you.

I would never try to mention you by name it would be impossible, but each and every one of you he classed as a friend not only a customer.

To those of you who visited John or phoned to ask how he was doing, I thank you, to those of you who came to the church, I say thank you, and for being his friend and making getting up on the morning worthwhile, I say THANK YOU.

*God bless you all
Pat*

A team from Sulgrave have decided to complete the Katharine House Hospice Midnight Walk on July 9th and, with Pat's permission, we are walking in John's memory as "Team John The Post". John was such a friend to us all and so it seemed appropriate to follow in his steps by helping others in his name.

If you would like to sponsor us there will shortly be forms available in Sulgrave Village Shop and The Star in Sulgrave and at Mumfords Butchers and The Red Lion in Culworth
