

SULGRAVE ALLOTMENT GARDENS

Until the early 1950s the area coloured green on this map was the site of the village allotment gardens. It is said that at one time there were enough 10 pole (250 square metres) allotments for every house in the village to have at least two.

Present day allotment gardens shown in red on this map.